DIRECTOR: WHITE HOUSE SITUATION ROOM

SUBJECT: THE MILITARY SITUATION IN SOUTH VIETNAM

Most of the military activity continues to be centered in scattered districts in the central delta. Fighting has eased throughout the rest of the country. Recent moves in Binh Duong Province by elements of the North Vietnamese 7th and 9th divisions indicate that some increase in military action may take place there shortly. From their new positions near Lai Khe, these units could block government attempts to move into Communist base areas or disrupt South Vietnamese road clearing operations northward along Route 13 or on Route 1A to the northeast.
